WHAT THE INDUSTRY HAD TO SAY

“ I have been attending the Middle East Coatings Show for the past couple of years now and I believe it's a must-attend event for all paint manufacturers from across the globe. It was a great opportunity to find out more about the latest products and technology in the coatings market.

“ It was a great opportunity to have technical discussions, find out about new products, reconnect with our suppliers and meet potential clients. The 2022 edition of the Middle East Coatings Show was beyond our expectations and we look forward to coming back for the next edition.
